Summary

Beth Sweeney is an Equity Partner and President of Ratliff & Taylor, Ohio's largest full-service talent management consultancy. She has fully integrated P&L responsibility including strategic and growth initiatives, sales and marketing, new product development, operations, and client solutions for all three lines of business: Executive Search, Leadership Development, and Career Transition. She brings more than 18 years of experience in the talent management arena and has a successful record as a senior leader, coach and consultant. She is known for leading strategic initiatives and designing impactful customer solutions.

Prior to joining Ratliff & Taylor, Beth was SVP and General Manager for a global talent management organization. She previously served as Corporate Director for Marketing and Public Affairs at The Mt. Sinai Medical Center in Cleveland as well as more than four years with WKYC-TV3 as a Producer and Reporter.

Beth particularly enjoys her work with emerging leaders and guiding others in issues related to executive presence, public presentations, and personal branding.

Beth's passion and expertise extend into her work within the community as well. She completed two terms as Treasurer of the Northeast Ohio HR Leadership Group, remains an active member of the organization and serves on a number of boards and committees around Northeast Ohio.
